Description

The desire that God puts into your heart, He will fulfill. Andrew Murray Audio excerpts download Color timeline Detailed indexes Author biographies Beautifully illustrated A thorough study guide Sensitively revised in modern English One of an expanding collection "I desire by God's grace to give to you this message-that your God in Heaven answers the prayers which you have offered for blessing on yourselves and for blessing on those around you by this one demand:
Are you willing to surrender yourselves absolutely into His hands? "What is our answer to be?
God knows there are hundreds of hearts who have said it, and there are hundreds more who long to say it but hardly dare to do so. And there are hearts who have said it, but who have yet miserably failed, and who feel themselves condemned because they did not find the secret of the power to live that life. May God have a word for all " - Andrew Murray This book-simple and powerful-is the result of Murray's passionate exploration of the issue of surrender-why it's seemingly impossible and yet completely necessary; Absolute Surrender; The Fruit of the Spirit Is Love; Separated Unto the Holy Ghost; Peter's Repentance; Impossible With Man, Possible
With God; O Wretched Man That I Am; Having Begun in the Spirit; Kept by the Power of God;
Ye Are the Branches

Insightful reviews

Stan Shelley: This is a Christian classic and when you read it you see why. Insightful and stimulating.

Ryan: The book was good for what it is: a quasi-devotional. It was certainly readable, though I often felt I was being told a lot without really being told anything. Murray writes with a lot of imagery, which isn't bad in itself, but rather than using the imagery for clarification that's all it was. This made it very hard to ascertain what, if anything, his words really mean. He writes quite poetically, which I think is meant to stir the emotions, but once one comes down from the emotional high and really reflects on what is being said and how to accomplish it, the matter becomes entirely unclear.

There were occasions where I felt that Murray spoke against himself. On the one hand, Murray emphasizes that the Christian fails because he/she tries to live the Christian life in his/her own strength. The remedy, then, is to give one's self up entirely to God, to let God and "His" power live through the believer. On the other hand, Murray seemed to suggest that the Christian is to (a) learn this (b) have unflinching trust in God and (3) abide in Christ. None of these, however, are trivial or easy to do. In other words, Murray seems to replace one burden with another without even knowing it.

Vaughn: In this book, Andrew Murray targets, perhaps, the single hardest, yet absolutely necessary attitude to living victoriously in Christ - total, uncompromising surrender. As the Christian life begins in the Spirit, it too must be lived in the Spirit. Yet many believers stumble here, thinking that once redeemed by Christ, their lives are now filled with joyless drudgery. Pastor Murray gives us not only suggestions as to why / how this might happen, but gives us the remedy - Absolute Surrender.

When we present our bodies as a living sacrifice unto God, He will accomplish what He promised He would do in our lives.

Alex: a superb ebook that reminds us of who we're in God's presence. This ebook has an underlying subject matter of God being the potter and us being the clay. One first-class instance supplied within the publication illustrates how in God's plan we're the pens and he's the writer. to ensure that God to put in writing a gorgeous piece of work, we needs to be obedient and keen to give up our desires and wishes for His larger purpose. it truly is via our will to give up that we in flip additionally get better joy.

Andrea: Andrew Murray A undying learn for the ages. now we have entry to the works of the varied devoted servants. i am grateful to all whom have made those initiatives to be had God Bless you Dustin Campos: impressive book! I hugely suggest this to somebody intending to quite hand over themselves thoroughly to the God of all. Andrew Murray does an excellent task of exegesis in a few key passages within the Bible resembling Peter denying Jesus and the myth of the vine and the branches. His perception into john 15 is little short of the Holy Spirit talking via his writings. it is a brief booklet and will be learn quickly, yet I hugely suggest taking a while with this and utilizing it in your life. compliment God from whom all advantages flow!
