Description

On her tenth birthday, Molly's father takes her to a horse auction where he buys an old mare. Molly is at first disappointed until the mare delivers a surprise--a baby mule with a glistening brown coat. What better name than Brown Sunshine?

Insightful reviews

Ingrid: Molly has wanted a horse for a very long time and she finally gets one for her birthday. At first she is disappointed in Lady Sue as she is an older horse, but Lady Sue has quite a wonderful surprise for Molly, a baby mule. Lady Sue and the baby mule, Brown Sunshine are great additions to the household and bring about a lot of wonderful events. This is a great book for horse lovers and all animal lovers.

Amy: A decent option for a horse-loving girl that doesn't want giant amounts of heartache and drama! I didn't love this book but I don't think B. noticed what I did. The illustrations were lovely sketches.

Heather: one of marguerite henry's greats.

Amy: My oldest quite loved this brief story!

NC: This was once the final booklet that Marguerite Henry wrote. After analyzing Misty of Chincoteague with the classic e-book Circle i wished to aim it. while i used to be a child i needed plenty of element approximately how horses have been expert and what riders did to enhance their riding. either one of those books have been very mild at the detail. solid story. Made me attracted to checking out extra approximately mules.

Kenyan: very brief and extremely effortless to learn
