Description

The Shocking True Story Of Murder In California Wine Country An award-winning journalist delves behind the scenes of a chilling true crime story aired on TV's 48 Hours Mystery -- and uncovers twisting revelations inside an already shattering case of double homicide.

Halloween night in idyllic Napa, California: two young women roommates -- a transplanted Southern beauty queen and a popular engineering graduate from the Napa area -- are brutally stabbed by an intruder who entered their home through a first-floor window. A third roommate heard the horrific commotion but never saw the killer. News of the tragedy sent shockwaves throughout the peaceful region as well as the nation -- but while investigators pursued every angle from a satanic cult to a disgruntled suitor, the murders of Leslie Mazzara and Adriane Insogna remained unsolved. Until someone came forward with a shocking confession -- someone who was close enough to the women to escape suspicion. Someone who knew the victims all too well.

Complete with up-to-the-minute court action and the stunning crime scene breakthroughs that turned the case around, here is the full story of the Nightmare In Napa.

Insightful reviews

Suzanne: A very quick paced book. 99% of the true crime I've read has been by Ann Rule and she sets a high standard. This book was not the in-depth coverage I believe Ms. Rule would have given the case. I'm still left wondering about the motive of the killer. The reasons given (very briefly) would describe eighty-percent of the population; yet, most people don't go out and brutally and fatally stab 2 women to death.

Not a bad read, but I'm left wanting more.

Armando Nieves: This book reads like a TV special of 48 hours mystery, a 2 hours special, there is a lot of information about the case, it has more details that you'll ever find in the TV show.

I found it very entertaining, a very easy to read. Recommend it.

Kim: I am a true crime junkie you could tell by looking at all the books I've read. This was a good book and kept me guessing as to whom the murderer was.

Marianne Jay: Amazingly written. you do not know who did it until eventually the very end. What a riveting book.

Michelle: Okay...so i admire a bit precise crime right here and there! yet i've got spotted that when I learn some of these books that I begin listening to little noises within the night....This was once an outstanding read, I thought. I had watched the "48 hours Mystery" approximately this crime, so i made a decision to learn the e-book for the "full story."

Matt: i admire this book!!! i'm into mysteries and this e-book charges lovely excessive to me. I loved each notice during this book.
