Description

Businessman Charles F. Haanel made a meticulous study of the "Law of Attraction" in The Master Key System--a step-by-step guide to activating the principle of mental power and a core inspiration behind The Secret.

Insightful reviews

Sylvan Clarke: The power of the mind is a wonderful thing, science has and will continue to try and understand the balance between controlled action and acts that come about by other means i.e. spirituality etc. This book contains a hypnotic learning strategy which allows you to check your understanding of lessons learned, which to me, can only be a good thing. Although I thought it was a little too long in parts I often wondered if it was trying to reach out to scholar types as it appears to be written in the form of thesis, which at times was lost on me. I condensed the book in my own mind and took what I could from it which was mainly that the power of the mind is truly a wonderful thing.

Louise: Written in 1912, this book was a little difficult to get into. The language and style of writing is antiquated, it's written from the perspective of a male dominated world, and at first glance it seems choppy and repetitive. But keep reading. By the middle of the book, I was hooked. This appears to be one of the first "self-help" books published. Its advice is simple, honest and progressive taking into account the era it was written. Haanel's wisdom is still useful today. And I must admit, by the time I finished the last chapter, I had gained insight into several life questions that had been on my mind. Worth the read if you are looking for direction and clarity.

Michael: In a nutshell: What you think trickles into your subconscious and will manifest itself in your life be it good or bad, so one needs to be careful of what thoughts they entertain. It's a bit difficult reading the first couple of chapters, but once you get into his writing style it's much easier reading. I don't agree with some of his theology, but I do agree with the power of intent, focus, concentration, and thought.

Robert Wetsel: If i'll suggest only one publication to anyone, this could be it. develop into a grasp of your international within."35. A majority of mankind lives on the planet without; few have chanced on the area within, and but it's the international inside of that makes the realm without; it really is hence inventive and every thing that you locate on your international with out has been created by way of you on the planet within."

Jay: one of many resource fabrics for Rhonda Byrne's The Secret, this is often one of many old references that identifies the legislations Of charm by means of name. First released in 1912, it's a tricky learn by means of state-of-the-art criteria as a result of language and format. organize as 24 weekly classes entire with exercises, i discovered the workouts fascinating yet struggled facing the presentation format.

Kadena: This ebook calls for cautious examine and analysis. you are going to find out how to
